Texas Women in Higher Education Announces 2024 Conference Scholarship Recipients

SHERMAN, Texas – Texas Women in Higher Education (TWHE) has announced the recipients of their 2024 Conference Scholarship, given to only ten professionals state-wide. The scholarship is designed for professionals working in higher education for eight or fewer years, specifically those serving in leadership roles, or desiring to serve in leadership roles. The scholarship covers the cost of registration to the TWHE Annual Conference in Corpus Christi, Texas in April 2024. Attendance at the annual conference provides the recipients the opportunity to pursue professional growth and enhance their leadership skills.

2024 Conference Scholarship Recipients

Amanda McInerney, Assistant to the Dean of Academic Affairs at St. Edwards University

The TWHE conference scholarships are administered by the 2024 conference planning subcommittee, Early Career Professionals, led by Sharon Ross, Ed.D., Assistant Professor, Department of Educational Leadership, Texas A&M University-Commerce.

Texas Women in Higher Education (TWHE) is dedicated to developing, advancing, and supporting women employed at colleges and universities across the state of Texas. Unlike organizations focused on one area of responsibility, TWHE serves women in all sectors of higher education—public and private, university and community college—working in all areas of their institutions.

“Any individual who is committed to supporting and advancing women in higher education is welcome to participate in the Texas Women in Higher Education activities without regard to gender, gender identity, and gender expression.”
